

5 Reasons to Attend BI+Analytics 2018

The BI+Analytics Conference is right around the corner! To make it easier on you to decide, we put together a list of the 5 most compelling reasons to attend in 2018.

1. Customer-led content makes up 70% of sessions

Unlike other conferences out there, BI+Analytics specializes in genuine stories and case studies from users that have their hands in software every single day. Learn from the experience of others and find new approaches to improve your business. View Agenda »

2. SAP Analytics experts available 1-on-1

Make a lasting connection with a SAP team member so that you always have the support that you need to succeed. The opportunity to learn from a product manager, sales, or support team member is very valuable. Signup for 1-on-1 »

3. Comprehensive schedule of old and new

Some are running BusinessObjects but others are running the latest and greatest of SAP Analytics, but MOST are running a hybrid of a few different softwares and hardwares. We have the comprehensive agenda to get you what you need.

4. A community of active users and versatile experts

Find your next mentor, form new relationships, and gain a fresh perspective on the state of your business through networking. People are constantly raving about the engaged and friendly community willing to talk over lunch, dinner, or drinks.

5. Universities, hospitals, retail and more!

Use the energy and experience of like minded people that have been in your position! How valuable would it be to learn from someone in your industry that recently implemented their analytics solution, strategy, and/or architecture?

Don't wait, join us in Huntington Beach at the end of this month! Get your tickets today. Need help on pricing? Contact Courtney Douglas at 914-509-5354 to see if you are eligible for special pricing.